Australian Libraries and Library Associations are involved in the promotion of the National Year of Reading 2012 (NYR). In partnership with Governments, Media, Schools, Writers, Booksellers and other organisations, NYR was launched on 14th February to promote and improve literacy skills across all age groups.

St Martin’s School aims to promote the NYR through these literary events:

- Photomontage – “What Reading looks like at St Martin’s”
- Survey to Parents and Grandparents “What was your favourite book as a child and why?”
- Author Visits for each class
- National Simultaneous Story-time May
- Scholastic Book Fair Tues 28th August – Tues 4th September
